

GRUDNITZKI, Curtis Mark

Curtis was born on June 16, 1983 in Swift Current and passed away peacefully on Tuesday, October 3, 2017 with loved ones by his side in Regina after his courageous battle with colon cancer.

He was predeceased by his grandpas Charles Grudnitzki and William Stuermer; and cousin Cory Planz.

Curtis is survived by his loving wife Joelene; daughter Willow; dogs Saya and Kuma; parents Erna and Wayne; sister Linell (James) and nephews Owen and Carter; brother Darcy (Sara) and nieces Lainey and Ellie; grandmas Lucy Stuermer and Helen Grudnitzki; Joelene's family: parents Ken and Marj Schmidt; sister Kaylyn (Steve) Bartel; niece and nephews Jayden, Samantha and Daxton; grandparents Ron and Rita Schmidt and Pius and Elsie Houk; plus many extended family and friends.

Curtis loved the outdoors; he lived for fishing and being on the water and was inventive with his fishing gear. Curtis had a wonderful sense of humour and was always thoughtful of others. His pride and joy came on April 24, 2017 in the birth of his beautiful daughter Willow, and Curtis cherished being a stay at home dad for the past five months.

The family wishes to thank the staff at the Pasqua Hospital 3B, 3A and the Allan Blair Cancer Centre for their wonderful care of Curtis and his loved ones.

A service to celebrate Curtis' life was held at Mount Olive Lutheran Church, 2015 4th Avenue N, Regina, Sask. on Saturday, October 7, 2017 at 11 a.m. Those attending the service were encouraged to wear camo gear.

In lieu of flowers, donations in memory of Curtis may be made to the Allan Blair Cancer Centre, 4101 Dewdney Avenue, Regina, Sask. S4T 7T1.

Family and friends are invited to sign the online obituary and tributes page at www.reginafuneralhome.ca. Arrangements entrusted to

Regina
Funeral Home & Cemetery
by Arbor Memorial