

GEPPERT,
Madeline Georgina
(nee Lissel)

The death of Madeline Georgina Geppert occurred at Lanigan Hospital on October 30, 2019. She was 95 years of age.

Georgina was born on September 19, 1924. She grew up on the family farm and then worked in Regina before marrying Walter Geppert in 1954. They farmed north of Dafoe. In 1972

Georgina began working at Quill Plains Lodge in Watson, Sask. She worked there for 17 years, the last 10 years as head cook. Georgina's love of cooking and especially baking set her in good stead both at her employment and in sharing food with family and friends. Following Walter's passing in 1998 Georgina moved to Lanigan. Georgina was a wonderful person, warm and welcoming to everyone that she met. She made many treasured friendships over the years and will be sadly missed by all who knew her.

Georgina is lovingly remembered by her children Lynn (Harold) Loewen, Roy Geppert and Janice Geppert, grandchildren and great-grandchildren Shauna (Daniel), Sophia and Eli; Rachel (Robin); Trevor (Erin), Ella and Lucas; Kris (Susanne), Simon and Junia, and by her sister Helen McGovern, brother Gordon (Norma) Lissel, sister Theresa Seidens, brother James (Karin) Lissel and by her nieces, nephews and their families.

She was predeceased by her husband Walter, two sisters in infancy, her sister Evelyn Baerwaldt and her sister Jean Geschwandtner, her sister-in-law Elsie Daelick, and by six brothers-in-law Fred Baerwaldt, Jim McGovern, Ben Geschwandtner, Wayne Seidens, Gordon Geppert and Alfred Daelick and by her nephew Raymond Daelick.

The family would like to thank Dr. Akinjobi and the nurses and staff of Lanigan Hospital for the exceptional care given during her final days.

A private family memorial service will be held at a future date.
