

HENNING,
Anne Natalia
(nee Basaraba)

Anne was born December 27, 1917 to Karl and Annie (Daelick) Basaraba on their homestead near Esk, Sask. She was the ninth child in a family of 12 children and was baptized and confirmed at Esk Lutheran Church. On November 26, 1940, she was united in marriage to Emil Martin Henning. They made their life on the Henning family farm and were blessed with two sons, Kenneth Martin in 1947 and Grant Emil in 1951. In 1956, they built a new home in Lanigan as it was more convenient for the boys as they started to attend school. Emil farmed from town until retirement in 1975, but continued to help out until 2001. Anne was active in the community and Trinity Lutheran Church in Lanigan, acting as treasurer and secretary, and taught Sunday school and vacation bible school for 15 years. She loved being part of the ladies group that made quilts for Lutheran World Relief. In her younger years, she enjoyed curling, and watching her sons play sports and playing cards. As she got older, she watched sports on TV, especially curling and baseball. Anne knew the players on the Toronto Blue Jays teams like they were family. She always had the ball game on. Anne was very active in scheduled events at the residences and always attended church services. Anne was very proud to be 103 years of age. In September, 2001, Anne and Emil moved to a senior's complex in Saskatoon, Luther Riverside Terrace, where she lived until January 2020 when she moved into Stonebridge Crossing to avail herself of more care. She always felt "blessed" that there are people and places in her world that would give her "such good care". Luther Riverside Terrace and Stonebridge Crossing made her life so much better and provided her with the care and attention she needed. Her family felt equally blessed that she took so easily to these changes.

Anne is deceased by her loving husband, Emil in 2004; her parents, Karl and Annie; all of her siblings and their spouses and all of her in-laws. She has outlived her family and friends.

She is survived by her family – Ken (Cathy) and his children Lynnell (Chris) and their children, Reese and Jenna; Marty and his children Spencer and Gavin. Grant (Linda), David (Lauren) and their children, Sophia and Hudson; Heather and her children, Lily and Winston; Michelle (Josh) and their children, Adda and Gibson.

Anne will be greatly missed.

Due to COVID and the restrictions arising from this, a memorial service will be planned in the future.
