

MARTELL,
Lois A.
(nee Hawes)
June 25, 1938 -
June 24, 2024

Lois Martell was born on the farm near Guernsey, Sask. on June 25, 1938 and passed away peacefully at the Manitou Lodge in Watrous, Sask. on June 24, 2024, just one day short of her 86th birthday.

Lois attended school in Guernsey and Lanigan. She married Nick Martell on December 5, 1959 at which time they settled at the Hawes family farm. They later moved onto the Blickensderfer farm and remained there until moving to Watrous in 1985. They continued to farm until retirement in 1994. In the following years, travel became a large part of their lives including many winters spent in Arizona. Her many loves included gardening, knitting, quilting, piano (both playing and teaching), and touring with the Guernsey Band in her younger days. Over the years Lois acquired numerous lifelong friendships through her love of golf, curling and church. She was always heavily involved with the community, whether volunteering or participating.

She is survived by her daughter Terry (Terry Forbes); son Greg (Carol) Martell; grandchildren Adam (Lisa) Hein, children Logan and Megan, Clinton Hein, son Jase, Clinton (Stephanie) Martell, children Ember and Paisley, Devon Martell, children Jasper and Heidi, Kimberly (Braedon Russell) Martell, Halle Martell, Jennifer Gifford, daughter Finley.

Lois was predeceased by her husband Nick; parents Alfred and Charlotte Hawes; and one brother Wayne Hawes.

A celebration of Lois's life will take place at Manitou Beach Golf Course in the tournament lounge on Saturday, July 20, 2024 from 11 a.m. until 2 p.m.

Private family interment.
