

ROBSON,
Elsie Ramona
Aug. 15, 1928 -
Oct. 23, 2017

Elsie was born Aug. 15, 1928 the youngest of ten children to Theodore and Amelia Koshinsky. Following her school years in Jansen, she worked at her brother Reinhold's Store and at the Jansen Central Telephone office.

Growing up and watching Frieda doing the ironing for her five brothers, she swore she'd never get married, but she did on June 4, 1948, to Warren Robson. They lived in a small shack south of Jansen, then moved to Grandpa Sam's farm before purchasing the Mark Robson farm. They raised three boys, Ron, Stan and Dave.

Her and Warren spent their lives working together on the farm picking stones, unloading the grain trucks, delivering meals to the field and cutting grass at the farm yard were some of her responsibilities. In 1979 they moved into Jansen and continued to farm from town.

Elsie was full of character and had many talents. She was very active in sports, a wicked softball player, and an avid curling skip. She loved her Toronto Blue Jays, very seldom missing a game on TV.

Ironically starting life hating domestic duties she became a phenomenal cook. She worked many years at Dafoe junction, her culinary abilities known by many.

Both her and Warren were long standing members of the Haliburton Community Club.

Even though her home was small it would always be full of family and friends.

Nights of entertainment included going to bingo, listening to Saturday Night Dance Party, and playing cards. In later years she could be found quilting along with Warren helping with the tying.

She loved her flowers, planting pots and flowerbeds every spring.

Elsie leaves to mourn daughter-in-law Carol, Stan, Dave (Gwen); grandchildren Craig (Mary), Jason (Cori), Allison (Shawn), Darryl (Danielle); great grandchildren Michel, Chandler, (James), Cade, Kaylin, Mesa, Ava, Keaton and Andrew and a special nephew who became part of our family, Dwayne (Val), Kelly, Beth (Clark) and Emily.

She was predeceased by her husband Warren, son Ron, parents, siblings, and their spouses, as well as numerous nieces and nephews.
