

SCHROEDER, Gladys

Gladys was born on September 25, 1930. She was the second oldest daughter of Albert and Helene (nee Schindel) Harmel. Gladys was born and raised on the family farm north of Jansen, Sask. She confirmed her faith on April 14, 1946, at Zion Lutheran Church in Jansen. Gladys attended Auderville School. She and her three sisters helped with chores on the farm. Gladys liked to crochet and worked on many doilies by coal oil lamp late into the night. On December 6, 1950, Gladys married John Henry Schroeder. Their marriage was blessed with five children: Donna, twins, Dean and Dale, Edith, and Angela. The couple farmed north of Jansen and in 1971 they purchased the Family Food Store in Jansen. The family continued farming until the sudden passing of John in 1974. In 1975, Gladys sold the store, continuing to work there part-time and also bought a house in Jansen. She then worked part-time at Yellowhead Esso at Dafoe from 1979-1987. She was involved in the church and local community club throughout the years. She enjoyed curling and attended many bonspiels in and around the Jansen area. She also had a talent for bowling and attained many medals. In her retirement she enjoyed gardening, crocheting, dancing, baking, quilting, and spending precious time with her family and friends.

Gladys will be lovingly remembered and sadly missed by her family of five children, 11 grandchildren, and seven great-grandchildren: Donna Gorski and children, Shaun McLennan and his sons Marek and Trenten; Darla (Jim) Kinequon and daughter Sydney; Dean (Gail) Schroeder and daughter Trina (Ryan) Larre and their family Cohen and Grace; Dale (Cecilia) Schroeder and his children, Kendra (John) Giuliano and their family Roman and Bianca, Selby Schroeder; Edith Earis (Patrick Wagner) and her sons Evan (Ashley) Earis, Dylan Earis, and Carson Earis; Angela (Terry) Bowman and children Hayden Bowman, Rylan Bowman and Maesyn Bowman; three sisters: Lydia Torwalt, Vorgeen Wacker, and Shirley (Barry) McDonald; and numerous nieces and nephews.
