

ELLIOTT,
Velma Gwendelyn
(nee Wildeman)
1933-2016

Velma Elliott passed away peacefully with her family at her side at the Royal University Hospital on March 27, 2016.

Velma was born September 22, 1933 on the family farm northeast of Esk, Sask. Velma married Y. Don on June 10, 1954 in Lanigan, Sask. Velma is remembered for her music; she loved singing and playing her electric organ. She entertained many with her musical talents over the years. Her other passions included cooking, spending summers at Emma Lake and winters in Arizona. Velma's greatest passion was nurturing and caring for her family. She was a kind, gentle woman and she positively impacted everyone around her. The family would like to extend their heartfelt thanks and sincere appreciation to Dr. K. Brose and Dr. R. Chernoff as well as the staff of the Royal University Hospital, CTU - 5000, for the excellent care they provided to Velma.

She is survived by her husband of 61 years, Y. Don and her three children Donavon (Nancy), Valerie (George) and Wesley (Karen). She also leaves to mourn her passing her grandchildren, great-grandchildren, a brother and two sisters and numerous nieces and nephews.

At her request there will not be a funeral.

A celebration of Velma's life will be celebrated by her family.

In lieu of flowers, memorial donations may be made to a charity of choice.

Arrangements entrusted to Wally Markewich, Hillcrest Funeral Home, Saskatoon, Sask.
