

WATSON,
Diane
(nee Linda (Diane) Crashley)

Diane Watson was born in Spiritwood, Sask. Jan. 11, 1947 and raised in Moose Jaw, Sask. from 1953 to her leaving to start her life journeys. Diane was a caring person to those around her at each place she lived and has life-long friends to her last days. Family she loved spending time with her daughters around Christmas time when they were all together. She was a collector of spoons, stamps, owls and Royalty was her biggest passion. She passed away Mar. 6, 2016.

Diane is predeceased by her parents Bert and Lilian Crashley, grandparents George and Lile Garner, grandparents John and Margret Crashley, in-laws Gilbert's parents, brother Murray and Bob Watson, their parents.

Left to celebrate her life is beloved husband Gilbert Watson; daughters Teralea Renz of North Battleford, Sask., Shelly (Gary) Funk, Glaslyn district, Sask., Lorrie (Arnold) Blackstar, Saskatoon, Sask.; many grandchildren and great grandchildren; sisters Terry (Roy) Richards, Regina, Sask., Tonilea (Ron) Cartmell, Edmonton, Alta.; brother Randy (Kathy) Crashley, Moose Jaw, Sask.; in-laws Gary (Pat) Watson, Prince George, B.C.; sister-in-law Helen Watson, Prince George, B.C.; aunts, uncles, cousins and many friends.

Funeral service was held at Life Point Church, Lanigan.

Memorial donations directed to Lanigan Food Bank would be appreciated.