

WILSON, Clark

Clark was born in August 1934, the youngest of eight children. He attended Bieberdorf School. Clark was big into 4-H cattle under the direction of Hugh Strong and he attended the Royal Winter Fair in Toronto twice. He married Dorothy in 1971 and became an instant father of seven children. Clark is survived by several nieces and nephews: Bill Hanson of Coquitlam, Heather and Morrie of B.C., Rosyln, Donald and Harold of Saskatoon and Eva of B.C. These belong to Grace. Florence had four children. Francas is married to Doug Gammie who was raised by the Robsons after his mother passed away. Clark and Dorothy sold the farm several years ago and moved to Saskatoon. Clark suffered a serious car accident a couple years ago and never fully recovered. Dorothy lives in a nursing home in Saskatoon. Rest in peace Uncle Clark, you'll be missed.
